Article 6 – Annual Draft

Section 1 Drafting Order and Coach Slotting

- A Coaches Meeting / Draft Date - All elected coaches and alternate coaches shall meet at least once prior to the Annual Draft/General Meeting, on a date to be established by the Executive Board, for the purpose of (among other things) establishing a date for the Annual Draft.
- B Draft Order - The draft selection order will be determined at least one month prior to the draft day, and if a coach refuses to draft or coach a team once the draft order has been established, that coach will not be allowed to play in the league that year but will be eligible for the draft the following year if he is a member in good standing.
- C Changes to Order - Once the first pick of the draft has been made, no changes will be allowed to the draft order.

Section 2 Draft Process

- A General - After an order has been established for player selection, then each coach shall select one player per pick, from top to bottom and then from bottom to top, back through to the coach who made the first selection.
- B Number of Players - Each coach must continue to draft players from the draft able players list until a maximum amount players have been reached. If, during the season, a team's roster falls to less than the required amount players for that season, the team will be assign additional players form the “preferred hat”process.
- C Coaches Round - Each coach will be assigned a round that they pick themselves to be determined by the executive board and the other 11 coaches. The two highest and two lowest voted rounds will be thrown out and the average then calculated. A coach shall not draft a player in the round in which the coach has been assigned. The draft pick order will be established first, and then coaches will be voted into a round. (modified 2013)
- D Vacant Draft Slots - Once the final pre-registration date has concluded and it is determined how many player participants the league will have during that season; any and all vacant draft slots remaining will be filled as described below:

- 1 Selection Process - If the draft cannot support 14 rounds of players, additional players will be pulled out of the preferred hat and if necessary, the general hat until the total amount of players needed to conclude the draft is reached. (Note) Depending upon the amount of draft rounds needed each season, and number of players in the preferred and regular hat, the draft rounds needed may fluctuate up or down a round.
- 2 Eligibility - Provided the potential player pulled from the hat is eligible to play, is otherwise in compliance with Article 1, Section 1, Article 1, Section 2, and Article 3, Section 1 of the By-Laws and expresses a desire to play, he shall be placed onto the draftable player list provided to each coach and shall be eligible to be drafted.

- E Pulling from the hat - Any potential new player pulled from the hat under this Section shall be pulled from the applicable hat per Article 6, Section 3 a minimum of 1 Executive Board Member and or coach must be present of which one must be the Players Representative.

Section 3 Preferred Hat and General Hat Governing Rules

- A General - There will be 2 hats at all times; they will be called the "Preferred Hat" and the "General Hat"
- B New Players - New players that express their desire to play in the LOMSL must give the required information to the LOMSL Player Rep (must meet Article 1, Section 1, Eligibility). The said player will be placed into the "General Hat".
- C New Player Draw - New players entering the league can only be drawn from the "Preferred Hat"
- D Hat Exhaustion - All players from the "Preferred Hat" must be exhausted into the League before players from the "General Hat" are transferred into the "Preferred Hat".
- E Transfer - Once the "Preferred Hat" is empty, all of the players that are in the "General Hat" then get placed into the "Preferred Hat". Once all said players are transferred from "General Hat" to the "Preferred Hat", no other players can be transferred until the "Preferred Hat" is exhausted again.

Section 4 Pro Rated Dues

- A General - A player selected from the hat during the course of a year, with less than ten (10) games remaining in the season, will pay prorated dues of one-tenth the annual dues times the number of games remaining in the season. Dues will be NO LESS than $50.00 (for banquet costs).
Person chosen from the hat, must pay and sign required forms and provide to an Executive Board member, before the player steps foot on the field of play. (2017)

Section 5 Teams going to the Hat

- A 11 Man Rule - If after the 3rd game of the season and before the last game of the season, if any team ever drops below 11.0 players per game on average (without rounding), they will be forced to go to the hat and can not drop any players. (11.0 players on a 13 minimum man roster and 12.00 players on a 14 minimum man roster). 10.25 minimum for 12 man roster. 12.5 min for a 15 man roster. (2018)
- B Same Week - No team will be forced to go to the hat twice in the same week.
- C Restart rule - Once a coach goes to the hat, his average will restart from that point. (Example: If a team goes to the hat in week 5 because they drop below “said amount of players, in week 6 they must have “said amount of players” or they will be forced to go to the hat again the next week. The average for that team will not include the previous 5 weeks; it will reset starting at week 6).
- If a team has to go to the hat to replace a player that can no longer play, due to a new work schedule, then that team does not have to reset their Average. This provision would also be taken into consideration for a player that is injured, if the injury prevented them from playing another game. (2018)
- D Roster proof - No team is allowed to go to the hat unless they can prove they will have less than 9 players for the upcoming week or a current player is injured and needs to be replaced. (This is needed to prevent "playoff bubble" teams from stacking their roster before the play-offs begin).
- E Eligibility - In order to have a player count towards their team’s average, the player must play the entire required amount of game play. There are 3 forms of game play that a player must meet in order to count toward the average;
- 1 Full game,
2 Half game,
3 Designated Hitter.
- Minimum - If a player does not complete the entire 1/2 game minimum (or DH for full game), regardless of reason (hurt/leave early/suspended), they will NOT count towards their team’s average. (Example, if a player gets hurt in the 3rd inning and can’t complete at least a half game of play, he will NOT count towards the team’s average).
- F Hat Pick First Week - Any Teams required to go to the hat per this section and pull hat picks, will not be subjected to the 11 man rule if player/s cannot make that week’s game in which they are contacted. All rules apply after that timeframe has elapsed and in essence player/s are given one week once contacted to play.
- G Sunday Games - Sunday make up or rain out games do not apply to the 11 man rule and if you are under the limit but will count if you are over the “said amount players” for that game and will apply towards your team average.
- H. No team shall go to the Hat after the conclusion of the 14th week of the season regardless of the circumstance.” (2017)

F Game Interruption - All Playoff and World Series games will be governed by NSA rule book (per rule 5 section 5e). This rule states:

1. Cancellation - During all tournament play (Qualifying, State, Regional, NIT's, World Series, Super World Series), in the event of rain or any other causes which interrupt a game, the game must be resumed at the exact point where it was stopped unless the teams mutually agree to accept the existing score as the final score.
2. Players - NOTE: Players not listed in the lineups, and not available at game time, may be substituted for when the game is resumed.

G Make-up Location - Make-up location will be determined by township availability. The Executive Board must have a rain-out schedule pre-determined before the start of the play-offs. This will eliminate any chance of accused favoritism.

Article 10 – Equipment

Section 1 NSA Rules

A General - All rules on equipment are governed by NSA by laws unless otherwise noted in this Article.

Section 2 Bats

A General - The owner of any bat used in a game, that is deemed to be altered or doctored by the umpire, and later verified by the NSA, will be banned from the LOMSL indefinitely.

Article 11 – Discipline

Disciplinary Decisions

A Player Rep - During disciplinary meetings only, The Player Representative will not have a vote on disciplinary action; rather he will only act as the player's representative before the board.

B Replacement Vote - As a replacement for the Player Rep., last year's League President will cast a vote on the pending disciplinary action.

C Alternate Replacement vote- If last year's League President is still on the board or isn't available for any reason, a non-involved coach will be chosen out of the hat to fill in.

Section 1 Ejections

A Game Ejection - Any player removed/ejected from a game by an umpire will be out for the remainder of that game (including the playoffs) and must remove himself from the park premises immediately.

B Umpires - Umpires will report all player removals/ejections to the LOMSL Board along with any additional recommendations relative to the incident that took place.

1. The LOMSL Executive Board retains the right to evaluate umpire recommendations and the incident that took place, and extend player suspension periods if necessary.

C Player - The player in question shall not return to ANY games while serving his suspension. Any player under suspension or disciplined as a result of a league function, by NSA, the LOMSL Board, or any umpire, is not to attend or be involved with any league function/s. This includes, but is not limited to, the Draft, the Practice Game, Regular Season, Playoffs, and World Series Games, the fields we play on, the parking lots of these fields, end of year Banquet, Pig Roast, Annual Golf Outing, All Star Game, or posting on the LOMSL Web Site, etc...

D Language - Any player who is ejected from a game and who uses threatening and/or intimidating language toward an umpire shall be suspended for the rest of that season, plus the next season.

E Contact - Any player who touches an umpire intentionally after being ejected from a game or touches an umpire intentionally during an argument shall be removed from the league for a minimum of 2 years, or more at the discretion of the Executive Board.

F Player Return - If the player chooses to return to the League after the suspension, they must enter through the annual draft.

Section 2 Additional Ejections

A Second Ejection - If a player is ejected from a game twice in the same season, upon the second ejection that player shall be suspended for the next two league games.

B Third Ejection - Any player who is ejected three times in the same season shall be ineligible for the remainder of the current season and for the next season's play. No monies or dues shall be refunded as a result of any player being disciplined.

Section 3 Absent Players

A General - Any player, who misses three consecutive weeks without having made contact with his coach, shall be contacted by the player representative to determine the player's desire to play.

- B Replacement Player - If the player cannot be reached or expresses the desire to no longer play to any executive officer, the player may be replaced by a pick from the hat.
- C Ineligible Player - The player being replaced will be considered an ineligible player for the remainder of the season and placed in the next year's draft if he wishes to play again.

Section 4 Detrimental Behavior

- A General - Any player who acts in a manner or demonstrates behavior detrimental to the League may be placed on probation or suspension by a majority vote of the Executive Board.
- B Reoccurrence - Any reoccurrence of such behavior by a player while on probation shall result in suspension from the League indefinitely.

Section 5 Game Statistics

- A Coach Responsibility - Any coach who does not have his team's complete-game score sheet delivered to the league statistician or the League's score sheet drop box by Midnight of the date the game has been completed will forfeit, at a minimum, the next home field advantage available to his team.

Section 6 LOMSL Website

- A General - LOMSL website is property of the LOMSL and is governed by the LOMSL Executive Board.
- B Misuse - Any misuse of the website may result in disciplinary action against the offending person and that person's loss of "Member in Good Standing".
- C Determination - Misuse will be defined and determined by the LOMSL Executive Board.

Section 7 Executive Board Decisions

- A General - Any Executive Board Members involved, or whose team is involved, in a disciplinary action shall remove himself from the decision making process.
- B Multiple Board Members - If two or more Executive Board Members are involved in the same incident, non-involved coaches will be randomly selected from a hat draw to replace the involved Executive Board Members.
- C Board Executed Discipline Decisions – Any discipline decisions by a current and or past Executive Board cannot be changed in any way for a minimum of 3 years. In the case of a player suspension for more than 5 years, and only after the 3rd year of the suspension, the disciplined player must supply, in writing, his reasons why he should be reinstated to the current board at that time. If the current board at that time, by majority vote, agrees to overturn the original decision by the past Board/s, the current Board can then take this re-instatement request to the general membership for vote. This general membership vote must be taken at the next General Meeting. If this vote passes by the majority of the general membership, the said player will be allowed to enter the draft the following year.

(modified 2015)

Section 8 Replacing Ejected Player

- A General - Any player ejected from a game MAY NOT be replaced immediately in the field or in the batting order, resulting in an out each time he is supposed to bat.
- B Before 5th Inning - If the player was ejected before the 5th inning changes, he may be replaced by an extra player in the last half of the game.
- C After 5th Inning - If the player was ejected after the 5th inning, his team may NOT replace him, even if the game extends into extra innings.
- D Opposing team - Also, the opposing team MAY NOT walk the hitter in front of the ejected player's spot in the batting order, to reach the third out. That hitter will continue to bat until he strikes out or puts the ball in play.

Section 9 Disciplinary Decisions

- A General – Refer to Article 2, Section 3

Section 10 Probation/Suspension

- A Player/s Probation/Suspension– Player/s placed on probation (any amount of time) or, suspended for less than 1 year but more than 3 games, cannot run for an executive board or coaching position for 2 years. (2013)
- B Player/s Suspension– Player/s suspended for a year or more; cannot run for an executive board or coaching position for 5 years. (2013)
